Volume II: February 1973 through December 1974

Issue

No. 1

Office production schedules that work - pp. 1-2
Criticisms of AIA's land use plan - p. 2
9 new management ideas for architects - pp. 3-4
Scholarly blast at land use zoning - p. 4

No. 2

"Outsiders'" ideas for promotion of architectural profession - pp. 1-2
Young offices devise new services, cost savings - pp. 2-3
Federal effort to "de-politicize" architectural contracts - p. 4
Augmenting income by teaching - p. 4
EPA threatens extreme controls over construction - p. 4

No. 3

Warnings on little-known union labor law violations - p. 1
5 low-cost employee morale and loyalty boosters - pp. 1-2
Radical, effective approaches to urban problems - pp. 2-4
Study of urban renewal shows net loss to cities - p. 4

No. 4

Simplified employee evaluation system - pp. 1-2
Solutions to employee lateness problem - pp. 2-3
Lapses in site research hurt projects/architects - pp. 3-4
Continued high inflation predicted for rest of '73 - p. 4
Unions fight ecological restrictions on development - p. 4

No. 5

Introduction to Guidelines Management Research Project - p. 1
Evaluation systems for rating job applicants - p. 2
The absentee boss--problems/solutions - p. 3
New steps toward advertising professional services - pp. 3-4
Bright idea curbs school vandalism - p. 4
Special products, discount service for architects - p. 4

No. 6

No-cost pay incentive cuts absenteeism - pp. 1-2
More low-cost morale boosters - p. 2
Simple staff time/cost monitoring system - pp. 2-4
Pruitt-Igoe eulogy - p. 4
Secretary/typist salaries - p. 4
4 unusual idea sources for architects - p. 4

Issue

No. 7

EPA and land use controls - p. 1
Architectural employee complaints - pp. 1-3
Tricks for handling procrastination on the job - pp. 3-4

No. 8

Architectural employee confrontations/conflicts - pp. 1-3
Using check prints as guides to quality control - p. 3
School architects gain with new survey method - pp. 3-4
Data source for preparing environmental impact statements - p. 4
Methods for handling client payment problems - p. 4
Architectural employees misinformed on pay scales - p. 4

No. 9

Warning on negotiating tricks; best negotiating methods - pp. 1-4
Architect credit in product advertising - p. 4
New consultation services for urban housing rehabs - p. 4

Special Report: Mafia, political graft and corruption hurting architects (2 pp.)

No. 10

Economic forecast for '74--more inflation - p. 1
Best techniques for getting ideas/arguments across - pp. 2-3
3 important office time/cost savers - pp. 3-4
Notes: move on national building code blocked; HUD may be disbanded; rent control movement fades; Labor Dept. study on absenteeism averages - p. 4

No. 11

Upcoming building prospects--problems, bright spots - p. 1
How to use press promotion - pp. 1-2
Construction photography for legal and job control - pp. 2-3
8 architectural uses of hand-held cassette tape recorders - pp. 3-4
Ratings on architectural schools - p. 4
Dealing with corruption - p. 4

No. 12

Methods for locating prospective clients - pp. 1-3
Watch out for holiday "time-off" laws - p. 4
Startling ruling in environmental suit - p. 4
Source for hand-held cassette tape recorders - p. 4